Drum notation for measures 156-160. Measure 156 has a double bar line and a half note on the snare line. Measures 157-160 feature a continuous pattern of eighth notes on the snare line, with a final quarter rest in measure 160. Above the staff, there are four 'x' marks in measures 156-159 and a diamond symbol in measure 160.

The drum score for measures 162-165 consists of two staves. The top staff uses diamond-shaped notation to represent various drum sounds, with some notes beamed together. The bottom staff uses standard musical notation with eighth and sixteenth notes, including rests, to represent the drum pattern. The notation is complex, with many beamed notes and rests, indicating a fast and intricate rhythm.

The drum part consists of four measures. Measure 165 starts with a double bar line and a common time signature. It features a series of eighth notes on the snare line, with some notes marked with an 'x' to indicate a specific sound or technique. Measure 166 continues the eighth-note pattern. Measure 167 has a more complex rhythm with eighth and sixteenth notes. Measure 168 concludes the sequence with a final eighth-note pattern.
